AQUISITION OF MAINE STATE PARKS

Five of Maine's State Parks have been given to "Vacationland."

These are:

1. Aroostook State Park, donated by the Merchants Association of Presque Isle.
2. Baxter State Park, results from many years of work by former Governor Percival P. Baxter.
3. Camden Hills State Park was transferred from the National Park Service.
4. Reid State Park donated by Mr. Walter E. Reid. This area is undeveloped.
5. Salmon Falls State Park was donated to the Appalachian Mountain Club, who deeded it to the State. The public use area has been flooded for hydro-electric power.

Another group of four State Parks are leased from the Federal Government.

They are:

Bradbury Mt. State Park
Lake St. George State Park
Mt. Blue State Park
Sebago Lake State Park

The only State Park purchased by the State is Fort Knox State Park, purchased from the Federal Government as a Memorial. Its popularity has caused it to be classified as a State Park.

AROOSTOOK STATE PARK

Location: Six miles south of Presque Isle.

Approaches: Turn west off U. S. Highway 1-A at sign, 4 miles south of Presque Isle.

Area: 430 acres.

Facilities: Picnic areas, picnic tables, fireplaces, bathing beach, spring water, rest room, ski trails, ski tow, open ski slope, warming hut, and concession.

Features: The Quoggy Joe mountains are the dominant features of this area, rising 600 feet above Echo Lake. From the summits one obtains a grand panaroma of the great Aroostook potato empire. On clear days Mount Katahdin is visible 65 miles to the southwest, and Canada to the east. While this country is sedimentary in nature one frequently finds interesting volcanic rocks from some ancient volcano. Aroostook State Park is the gift of the public spirited citizens of Presque Isle.

BRADBURY MT. STATE PARK

Location: One-half mile north of Pownal Center, on State Route No. 9.

Approaches: From Freeport turn north five miles to Pownal Center. From Gray and Yarmouth, take Route 115 to Route 9. Go northeast 6 miles on Route 9.

Area: 173 acres.

Facilities: Picnic areas, spring water, picnic tables, fireplaces, rest rooms, picnic shelters, hiking trails, campground, ski tow, open ski slope, warming hut and concession, and play area.

Features: The rugged granite bluff which is the south peak of Bradbury Mt., 485 feet elevation, gives a beautiful panorama of Casco Bay. From the northern peak the White Mountains, Mt. Blue and many other mountains can be seen. There is a well preserved cattle pound, probably built in the 18th century. Across the road is the site of the old Jones Tavern, used in stage coach days as a rest haven between Portland and Hallowell. An abandoned feldspar quarry is of interest to rock hounds.

CAMDEN HILLS STATE PARK

Location: Camden and Lincolnville, on the Atlantic Coast.

Approaches: On U. S. Route 1, 2 miles east of Camden.

Area: 4,962 acres.

Facilities:

Sagamore District—

Sagamore Picnic Area: Sixty shady acres on picturesque Penobscot Bay. A typical bit of Maine's rockbound coast, with picnic tables, fireplaces, tested water, rest rooms, parking areas and picnic shelters.

Sagamore Campground: For tents and trailers at foot of Mt. Megunticook. Fireplaces, picnic tables, tested water, and rest rooms.

Foot Trails: Twenty-five miles of wooded mountain trails. Many impressive views of Maine's coast.

Winter Sports: Novice, intermediate and expert ski trails, ski shelter and snowshoe trails.

Ducktrap District—

Camp Tanglewood, a camp for up to one hundred people. Used during the summer as a youth camp. Available in spring and fall for conferences. (NOT OPEN TO PUBLIC USE).

Features: The unique and picturesque Sagamore Picnic and camp areas; Mt. Megunticook, the highest mountain on the Atlantic Coast between Florida and Bar Harbor, Maine; and the scenic wooded trails.

FORT KNOX STATE PARK

Location: One-quarter mile above the prize winning Waldo-Hancock bridge over the Penobscot river.

Approaches: U. S. Route 1-A from Bucksport or Stockton Springs.

Area: 124 acres.

Facilities: Picnic areas, picnic tables, fireplaces, tested water, rest rooms, concession and picnic shelter.

Features: This site was selected for fortification at the time of the Aroostook War. In 1846 Fort Knox was begun on the west bank of the Penobscot river. It was named in honor of General Henry Knox, Washington's Secretary of War, who resided at "Montpelier" in Thomaston after serving his country in war and peace. The masonry in the fort is the work of master craftsmen, standing the elements for a century, and remaining in excellent shape. The underground stairways, the curved brick arches and the circular stairs give one a deep respect for the workmanship of their ancestors in the construction of one of the largest forts in the country.

LAKE ST. GEORGE STATE PARK

Location: In Liberty and Montville.

Approaches: Over State Route 3, 27 miles east of Augusta, or 17 miles west of Belfast.

Area: 5311 acres.

Facilities: Bathing beach, bath house, picnic tables, fireplaces, spring water, campground, rest rooms, lighted ski tow, open slope, warming room, and concession.

Features: The recreational facilities are all in the Liberty district of the State Park, on the shore of spring fed St. George Lake, on Route 3. It is around the lake that most activities center, with swimming, fishing, and boating taking up most of one's time. From the hill in back of the lake one obtains a wide view of the country to the south including the coastal range of the Camden Hills.

On the Frye Mt. District, there is a State operated Fire Tower from which one can view the landscape for 360°.

MT. BLUE STATE PARK

Location: In Weld and Avon.

Approaches: Leave Route U. S. 2 at Dixfield on State Route 142 to Weld 14 miles, or leave U. S. 2 at Wilton on State Route 156 and travel 14 miles to Weld.

Area: 4921 acres.

Facilities: Lake Webb District—Picnic areas, campground, fireplaces, picnic tables, bathing beach, bath house, Adirondack shelters, drinking water, recreation building, and rest rooms.

Center Hill District—Parking overlook, picnic tables, fireplaces, drinking water, picnic shelters, foot trails, and rest rooms.

Mt. Blue District—trail to summit 1.75 miles, 47 foot steel Fire Tower at summit, and spring water.

Features: The three districts of Mt. Blue State Park offer a wide variety of recreational possibilities. The passive recreationalist can view the scenic mountains encompassing Weld, from his car on Center Hill. The mountain climber can get well limbered up on the 2027 foot climb to the fire tower on Mt. Blue, at 3187 feet above sea level. The camper, the bather and the fisherman will center their activities around Lake Webb.

SEBAGO LAKE STATE PARK

Location: In Naples and Casco, on both sides of the mouth of the Songo River.

Approaches: From Portland take U. S. Route 302, 30 miles towards Naples. Turn left at sign. Leave State Routes 11 and 114, 2 miles south of Naples at sign in triangle.

Area: 1296 acres.

Facilities: Naples District—campground with fireplaces, picnic tables, tested water, excellent bathing beach, bridle and foot trails, rest rooms.

Songo District—Day use area with fireplaces, picnic tables, shelters, water, rest rooms, trails and excellent bathing beach.

Features: The dominating features of Sebago Lake State Park are its beautiful sandy beaches on the shore of the sparkling lake. It was from this lake, of nearly 45 square miles of water surface, that the fighting Salmo Sebago derived its name. Indian artifacts may be found along the sandy shore.

Much fishing emanates from this section of the lake, where boats and guides are obtainable.

FORT BALDWIN MEMORIAL

Location: Sabino Hill, Popham Beach, Phippsburg.

Approach: From Bath take State Route 209 to Popham Beach 15.5 miles.

Area: 45 acres.

Features: Most modern of Maine's Memorial forts, being built between 1905 and 1912. The batteries are not visible from the mouth of the historic Kennebec River, whose entrance the fort guards. Seaward one sees the island and lighthouse Seguin. Directly below the hill the Popham colony wintered in 1607-08. These were the first Englishmen to spend a winter in New England. Fort Baldwin was made a State Memorial in 1923.

FORT EDGECOMB MEMORIAL

Location: Fort Point, Davis Island, North Edgcomb.

Approaches: Turn south off U. S. Route 1 at Edgcomb end of Wiscasset bridge, then next right.

Area: 3.15 acres.

Facilities: Lobster pound and concession, picnic tables, rest rooms, and play area.

Features: A historic and interesting old Block House and Fortifications built in 1808 to defend Wiscasset Harbor in the War of 1812. Set in a beautiful natural setting overlooking a picturesque old Maine sea coast town, and the Sheepscot river. Frequently in front of the old Fort, brown seals play in the swift tides.

From the fort grounds, across the bay, may be seen the house prepared for Marie Antoinette.

This became a State Memorial in 1923.

FORT MACHIAS MEMORIAL

Location: Machiasport.

Approach: Leave U. S. Route 1 at Machias on State Route 92 for 5 miles.

Area: 2 acres.

Features: Fort Machias is also known as Fort O'Brien. It became part of the national defense when Washington ordered the protection of Machiasport. At present only breast-works remain. Off this fort the British schooner "Margaretta" was captured in one of the earliest naval engagements of the Revolution, and is frequently referred to as "the Lexington of the Seas."

It was set aside as a State Memorial in 1923.

FORT McCLARY MEMORIAL

Location: Kittery Point.

Approaches: Leave U. S. Highway No. 1 at east end of John Paul Jones Memorial in Kittery, and go south 3.5 miles on Kittery Point road.

Area: 27.5 acres.

Facilities: Picnic area, fireplaces, picnic tables, tested water, rest rooms, bath house, diving boards, swings and slides for children.

Features: The first recorded fortification on the Maine side of the Piscataqua River resulted from a Massachusetts Resolve dated June 1, 1715. It was later called Fort William in honor of Sir William Pepperell who was born in Kittery on June 27, 1696, and knighted for his success at Louisburg.

At the time of the Revolution the name was changed to Fort McClary in memory of Major Andrew McClary, who was killed at Bunker Hill.

The present hexagonal Fort was probably built about 1844, as War Department plans of that date show the block house, granite below and wood above, just as it is today. The old powder magazines and rifle pits should be seen.

Fort McClary became a State Memorial in 1923.

FORT POPHAM MEMORIAL

Location: Popham Beach, Phippsburg.

Approach: From Bath, take State Route No. 209 to Popham Beach, 15.5 miles.

Area: 6.6 acres.

Features: The present fort was erected in 1861 but never completed. It was garrisoned in 1865-66, in 1898, and taken over by the Army during both World Wars.

Near here in 1607 the first English colony in New England, under George Popham, built Fort St. George, and fortified it with twelve pieces of ordnance.

This became a State Memorial in 1923.

FORT ST. GEORGE'S MEMORIAL

Location: St. George.

Approaches: Leave U. S. Highway No. 1 at Thomaston. Take State Route No. 131 south 5 miles. Site is $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile from road and location is unmarked.

Area: 2.6 acres.

Features: All that is left are bush covered ramparts in the form of crescents facing the river. The fort was built in 1809 and garrisoned during the War of 1812. In 1814 the British captured the Fort and spiked the 15 pound guns.

It was set aside in 1923 as a State Memorial.

FORT WILLIAM HENRY MEMORIAL

Location: Pemaquid Beach, Bristol.

Approaches: Leave U. S. Highway No. 1 at Damariscotta on State Route No. 129, 4 miles. Then pick up State Route No. 130 for 9 miles. Bear right one mile to beach.

Area: 1 acre.

Features: The present fort is a replica of Fort William Henry which stood from 1692 to 1696. The masonry parapet wall encircles the overhanging rock that was the old powder magazine. In the fort are old relics, portraits, maps and copies of Indian deeds.

It is believed that this is the only site in Maine where four forts have been erected on one site. First was Shurt's Fort built about 1630 against Pirates, particularly Dixie Bull. Fort Charles followed in 1677. Next was Fort William Henry built in 1692 and destroyed by Baron de Castine in 1696. In 1729 Fort Frederick was erected and was destroyed during the Revolution by Pemaquid residents to prevent its falling into the hands of the British.

This site became a State Memorial in 1899.

JOHN PAUL JONES MEMORIAL

Location: East bank Piscataqua River where U. S. Highway No. 1 enters Maine in Kittery.

Approach: U. S. Highway No. 1.

Area: 1.7 acres.

Features: Named in honor of John Paul Jones because the U. S. S. Ranger was built close by. On the Ranger, Jones received the first salute given a man-of-war flying the Stars and Stripes.

This was made a State Memorial in 1927.

MERE POINT MEMORIAL

Location: Mere Point, Brunswick.

Approach: No route marking, inquire in Brunswick.

Area: $\frac{1}{4}$ acre.

Features: Round the World Flight—1924. "On the shore of Mere Point, Casco Bay, Maine, 200 feet west of this spot on September 6, 1924, the United States Army Round-the-World aviators, after starting westward from Seattle, Washington, April 6, 1924, made their first landing on the soil of the United States. To this point they covered a distance of 22,366 miles in 55 days: actual flying time, 500 hours. They arrived at Seattle, September 28, 1924, and thus completed the first air flight around the globe, a distance of 26,105 miles in 176 days: actual flying time, 576 hours, 11 minutes."

This Memorial erected 1924 by order of the Governor and Council of the State of Maine to commemorate a Great Achievement.

Became a Memorial by Council Order Sept. 10, 1924, 10 days after flyers landed.

Features: Baxter State Park is in the northern Maine wilderness between the east and west branches of the Penobscot River, and is generally of mountainous terrain rising abruptly from a comparatively flat and extensive area of forest land. Mount Katahdin, the highest elevation in Maine (5,267 feet) is the dominating feature of the region. Two favored routes offer the mountain climber access to its summits from which remarkable panoramas spread on every hand. Baxter Peak is the northern terminus of the Appalachian Trail which extends from Maine to Georgia. The upper portions of Mount Katahdin extend into the Arctic-alpine life zone with its characteristic flora. Evidence of glacial action is widespread with resultant glacial cirques, moraines, and glacial deposits.

The state park is a wildlife sanctuary where moose, deer, bear, beaver and other wildlife may be observed and photographed in their natural habitats. Eastern brook trout thrive in the numerous lakes, ponds, and streams of the region and a 75-mile network of foot trails about the park provides access and opportunities for all degrees of hiking, camping and wilderness recreation.

The region is accessible from Memorial Day to October 15th. Camping equipment and supplies should be brought in. Only the hardiest winter sports enthusiasts should consider this region in the winter and then only after complete arrangements have been made with the Park Supervisor.

National Park Service

ACADIA NATIONAL PARK

Mt. Desert Island--Winter Harbor and Isle au Haut 27,860 Acres

Sieur de Monts National Monument was established July 8, 1916. This area established by outright gift to the government by a small group of public-spirited men, was the first National Park east of the Mississippi, and is the only National Park in New England. It was created Lafayette National Park by an Act of Congress approved February 26, 1919. Its name became Acadia by Act of Congress approved January 19, 1929.

Approach is by way of Route 3 from Ellsworth, being 20 miles from Ellsworth, 170 miles from Portland. The Park is also accessible by boat to Bar Harbor, by railroad to Ellsworth, by air and by bus.

Information

The office of Acadia National Park is situated in Bar Harbor at the corner of Maine Street and Park Road. It is open daily except Sunday from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M. This office is more than glad to answer any questions and give out all information on the Park.

Nature Guide Service

In Acadia National Park, as in all national parks, there is available to the visitor free nature guide service. The Park Naturalist and his assistants conduct a program designed to acquaint the visitor with geology, plant life, animal life and history of the Park.

Museums

An archeological museum is located in this park. It contains relics of the stone age period of Indian culture in this region. An archeologist is in charge during the summer season to explain the relics.

Motor Roads

A road of great beauty through the lake district, connecting Bar Harbor with the resorts upon the southern shore, Seal Harbor and Northeast Harbor, has been opened to travel. Rising from this, another road leads to the summit of Cadillac Mountain, the highest point on our eastern coast, replacing an early buckboard road now washed away. Entrance to these roads is equally convenient from Bar Harbor or Seal Harbor.

On Schoodic Peninsula near Winter Harbor another motor road offers park visitors a shoreline drive of great charm and interest, following closely the rugged coast of the peninsula. Maine State Highway No. 186 may be left at Winter Harbor and reentered at Birch Harbor.

Motor Camping

A public campground is maintained in the park for motorists bringing their own camping outfits. The ground is equipped with running water, modern sanitary conveniences, outdoor fireplaces, electric lights, and places to wash clothes. It is under the close supervision of the park authorities, and safety and freedom from annoyance are assured. No charge is made for the camping privilege.

Carriage Roads and Bridlepaths

Connected with the town road system and leading into and through the park is an excellent system of roads for use with horses, some 50 miles in extent. Stables at Bar Harbor, Jordan Pond, and Northeast Harbor furnish horses, saddle and driving, for trips over these roads, entrances to which are provided near Bar Harbor, Seal Harbor, and Northeast Harbor.

Trails and Footpaths

Acadia is primarily a trail park and contains within its boundaries at the present time some 150 miles of trails and footpaths, reaching every mountain summit and transversing every valley.

The system is so designed that the inclination of every type of walker is met. Broad lowland paths offer delightfully easy walks; winding trails of easy grade to the mountain summits are provided for those who like a moderately strenuous climb; and rough mountainside trails give opportunity for hardy exercise to those who enjoy real hiking.

It is only by means of these trails and paths that the park can be really seen and appreciated, and the system is so laid out that there is no danger of becoming lost.

There are many facilities also available for nature study, picnics, cycling, boating, fishing, skating, skiing, coasting, golf and scenic observation.

There are ample accommodations outside of the Park for people who want to stop at hotels, tourist homes or tourist camps at moderate rates.

Maine has so much to offer the vacationist that it is possible to list only a small part of its attractions in a booklet of this character.

If further information is required the publishers of this booklet will be glad indeed to furnish it on receipt of a letter or postcard.

Below are listed the booklets published by the State of Maine. They may be obtained by addressing the Maine Development Commission, State House, Augusta, Maine.
